TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue of Books, Conſiſts of the Library of the late Reverend and Learned Mr. Steph. Charnock, ſometime Fellow of New-Colledge in Oxford, and Proctor of the Univerſity, a Perſon ſo well known for his Conſtant and Indefatigable Study, and ſo much fam'd for his accurate Preaching in this City, that I ſhall not preſume to attempt a further Character of him: Since thoſe Excellent Diſcourſes of his, Of Providence, &c. That are now with all ſpeed preparing for publick view; will ſufficiently inform the World of his other great Abilities, and perpetuate his Name to Poſterity. However with relation to the preſent undertaking, I think it not amiſs to obſerve, That he was well skil'd in the Editions of Books, and Curious to Collect what ever was eſteemed Choice and Uſeful in its kind, which appears by the enſuing Catalogue, (and will we doubt not) be Invitation ſufficient to all Lovers of Books and Learning, to buy upon this occaſion thoſe they want, that (now are, but may not again) be expoſed to Sale this Auctionary Way.

This Auction will begin on Monday the Fourth day of October, 1680. At the Sign of the Lamb an Upholſterers Houſe, directly oppoſite to the Atlas in Cornhill, punctually at Nine of the Clock in the morning and two in the Afternoon, and there continue dayly untill all the Books be Sold.

The

The Conditions are theſe.

I. That he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any manifeſt difference ſhall ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the ſame Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed a ſecond time.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo Bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are Sold, where upon payment thereof, the Book or Books for the Month aforeſaid will be delivered.

IV. If any Gentlemen deſire to ſatisfie themſelves of the Condition or Edition of any of theſe Books, they may ſee them at the place aforeſaid, for one whole week before the Auction begins.

CATALOGUE

BOOKS,

Viz. { Divinity, History, Humanity, } { Philology, Voyages, Poetry, &c. }

Collected out of ſeveral Stocks and Conſiderable Libraries; with great Choice of Stitch'd Books, viz. Acts of Parliament, Speeches, Church-Government, Sermons on moſt Occaſions, &c.

Which will be Sold by Auction at Rolls Coffee-Houſe near the North Door in St. Paul's Church-yard, on Monday March 16. 16$\frac{90}{91}$.

By William Miller Bookſeller.

Catalogues are Diſtributed by William Miller, at the Acorn in St. Paul's Church-Yard, where Gentlemen and others may be furniſhed with moſt Sorts of Acts of Parliament, Kings, Lord Chancellors, and Speakers Speeches, and other State Matters; as alſo Books of Divinity, Church-Government, Sermons on moſt Occaſions, &c.

To the READER

THis Catalogue consists of Great Variety of English and Latin Books in all Volumes and of most Subjects: The Method of disposing is new, designed for the Entertainment of all sorts of Buyers; upon the same Pages presenting them with English and Latin Books, not intermix'd, but distinctly Printed. This way we hope may be both Acceptable and Useful to the Gentlemen, being upon Experience sensible, that the Expectation and Patience of many good Buyers is defeated, and too long exercised, before the Books by them desired have come to be exposed. The Collection of Acts of Parliament, Speeches, Tracts about Church-Government, and Sermons with the Texts and Occasions of being Preached, hath been by many both wished for and desired, to be so described, which if upon trial it prove pleasing to the World, and moderately Gainful to the Undertaker, for his Pains in Sorting, and Care in keeping them in order, the Age may probably have the Best and Largest Collection of one of a Sort, of all things Ancient and Modern that hath been published to this day, reduced under Heads, and digested into an exact Order. This therefore being a Specimen of a farther Design, and an Intimation to the World, where, after this Sale is ended, all Persons may be supplied with most of the Books contained herein, By their Friend and Servant

William Miller.

Conditions of SALE.

I. THat he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise which the Company cannot Decide, then the Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed (for ought we know) are Perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books so Bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within three days after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are Sold; where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books shall be delivered for the three days aforesaid.

IV. That all Gentlemen, &c. Buyers, do give in not only their Surnames but Christian, as also their Places of Abode, with the Signs they live or lodge at, to the end that every Person may have Justice done him in Buying, and in the Delivery.

V. The Books will be exposed to view two Days before the time of the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.

TO THE READER.

THIS enſuing Catalogue contains the Library of Mr. THOMAS GREY, late of Ded-ham in Eſſex; whoſe Character I forbear to preſent the World with, ſince it's ſo admirably deſcrib'd in a Funeral Ser-mon pronounced on that occaſion. No more need be inſtanced in, as to the preſent ſale, than the Books herein deſcribed, to evidence his Learning and demonſtrate his Knowledge, viz. variety of Bibles, Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtorians, gr. lat. Commentators, Schoolmen, with moſt other valuable and uſeful Books. The Engliſh part is the beſt and largeſt hitherto publiſhed; wherein he ſeemed to attempt the compleat-ing of the Works of all our Engliſh Divines, Antient and Modern, ſcarce any thing of any Author of note being want-ing that hath been Publiſhed for 20 Years laſt paſt. The Collection of Treatiſes againſt Popery, writ by our Divines, Collected and Bound in order of Time, in 15 Vol. is a plain Indication how zealous he was to be Maſter of every thing that was curious. In ſhort the whole Library being conſidered, hath been made with great Care and as large Ex-pence, ſufficiently inviting to all lovers of Learning, and pa-trons of Knowledge

The Conditions of Sale.

I. HE that bids moſts is the Buyer; but if any difference ariſe which the Company can't decide, the Book ſhall be re-expoſed to Sale.

II. The Books, for ought we know, are Perfect; but if any appear otherwiſe, before they are taken away, the Buyer is at his liberty of taking or refuſing them.

III. That every Buyer ſhall give in his Name and Place of Abode, and pay alſo Five Shillings in the Pound for what he ſhall buy, if demanded, and be obliged to take away his Books within one Week after the Sale is ended; during which time Attendance will be given for that purpoſe.

The Books may be viewed three days before the Sale begins, which will be on Thurſday, February 8. at Three a Clock in the Afternoon, 169$\frac{3}{4}$.

To the READER.

THIS Sale of the Incomparable Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Megot, late Dean of Wincheſter, I may reaſonably expect will occaſion the Attendance, and command the Preſence of the Learned of the Age: For it's hardly probable that they will be ſuddenly entertained again with a compleat Set of the Latin Fathers, a Collection of the Greek of the beſt Editions; as alſo of the moſt valuable and conſiderable Caſuiſts and Schoolmen, Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtorians, Councils; in ſhort, of all the moſt Uſeful and Celebrated Books in Divinity. The Philologici, Claſſici, Hiſtorici, exceed the Characters, and tranſcend thoſe Commendations uſually given of Books on theſe Occaſions; for they may truly be ſaid, with reſpect to their Number, Editions, beautiful Copies, and curious Binding, not to be valued, becauſe very rarely, if at all, to be purchaſed when moſt paſſionately deſired. Such a ſcarce and judicious Collection, neceſſarily infers what great Expence he was at in procuring; what Knowledg was neceſſary in the chuſing of them: So that I may, without being guilty of Flattery, rationally conclude, that excellent Perſon abovementioned, to be really Maſter of all the different ſorts of Learning contained in thoſe admirable Folio's, &c. being ſo many Reliques to be ſcattered and diſperſed amongſt the ſtudious and inquiſitive Gentlemen the Buyers, by way of Auction, ſo univerſally approved of, as having a peculiar tendency to advance the Intereſt of Learning in the World.

Your Servant, E. Millington.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 6th of Novemb. 1693, at Roll's Auction-Houſe in Petty-Canon Hall in St. Paul's Church-Yard, from Four to Eight each Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen will be pleaſed to give in their Names and Places of Abode, after their buying any Book or Books; paying alſo 5 s. in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they ſhall buy (if demanded) and ſo proportionably for all leſſer Sums, otherwiſe the Book or Books ſold ſhall be expoſed to Sale again.

IV. That no Perſon is to bid leſs than 6 d. a time under a Pound, and 1 s. above a Pound for Folio's; 4 d. for Quarto's; 2 d. for 8*o*, 12*o*, 24*o*. the firſt Bidding left to the Pleaſure of the Company.

V. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid within one Week after the Auction is ended, at the place of Sale, where the Books ſhall be ready to be delivered to them, or their Order.

To the Readers.

Gentlemen,

YOu are here presented with the Library of Edw. Wray of Barlings in Lincolnshire, a Gent. well known for his skill in Arts and Languages, and his singular judgment in the choice of his Library, as well as curiosity of their Binding, which being perused, will manifest him both a Gent. and a Scholar, and one that hath gathered such Curiosities in his Travels, as are not frequently to be found, whether in Diuinity, History, Mathematicks, Architecture, Prospective, Roman Antiquities, &c. both in Latin, Italian, & French, as well as English, as will more manifestly appear in viewing the Catalogue it self. Wherefore I shall only acquaint you, that this Sale will begin the 20th day of June next, at the Pelican in Little-Britain, London, at the usual hours of 9 in the Morning, & 2 in the Afternoon, & so to continue daily till all are sold. The Books may be seen any time of the day the week before the Sale begins. The Conditions follow.

I. That he who bids most is the Buyer; but if any difference ariseth, the same Book or Books shall be again exposed to Sale.

II. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwise expressed) are, for ought we know, perfect; but if any of them do appear to be otherwise, before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice whether he will take them or leave them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the Pelican in Litle Britain, London; were, upon payment thereof, the Book or Books bought shall be ready to be delivered, within the Month aforesaid.

To the READER.

HAD not Titles of Auctions been look'd upon for the most part as words of course, I should have said nothing by way of Preface, and only mentioned the Conditions of Sale. But promising so much out of Pensioner Fagel's and Mr. le Moyne's Libraries, I thought it necessary to let you know, that there are numbers of very choice Books out of them both, very lately brought over from their Auctions which were held last Summer in Holland.

Many of Mr. Le Moyne's Books are, not only here and there, marked, but there are large References and Additions in many of them, up and down almost in every Page, which will be extreamly Acceptable to all those who know Mr. Le Moyne, that is to all the Learned.

That Learned Person who Collected the rest of the Books, has shown his Skill sufficiently in Gathering so many excellent Editions of the best Roman and Greek Authors, of the Edittons of Aldus, Stephen, Elzevir, &c. I need say no more, and I am sure what I have said already, will be justified by all those who shall read this Catalogue. Those whose Convenience will not permit them to be present at the Sale, may please to send Commissions, which shall be Faithfully executed by, Gentlemen,

Your Humble Servant John Bullord

Bookseller in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The Conditions of SALE.

I. He that bids most is the Buyer, and if any Difference arise, the said Book or Books shall forthwith be Exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue are (for ought we know) Perfect, but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Mony for the Book or Books bought is to be Paid by the Buyer within 14 Days after the Auction is ended at the Place of Sale.

This Auction will be held at Sam's Coffee-House in Ave-Mary-Lane near Ludgate-street, on Monday February 3. 1689. at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, and so continue daily till all are Sold; where the Books will be to be seen Four days before the Sale begins.

Quorum AUCTIO

Fiet Londini apud Tom's Coffee-House, juxta Ludgate, in Vico vulgò dicto Ludgate-Hill, die 30. Martii, Anno 1696.

Per JO. BULLORD.

CATALOGUES are diſtributed Gratis at Mr. Caſtles, next Scotland-Yard. At Mr. Varennes, at Seneca's Head near Exeter-Change in the Strand. At Mr. R. Parkers, at the Unicorn on the Piazza of the Royal Exchange. At Mr. Nott's in the Pall-Mall. And at the Place of Sale.

TO THE READER.

THE Perſons concerned in the enſuing Catalogue think it unneceſſary to ſay any thing in favour of the Books therein mentioned, being well aſſured that, if they are good, they will need no Commendation; if otherwiſe, none will be ſufficient to recommend them to the Judicious, who are the only competent Judges in this matter.

That the Fathers of the Church, and Theological Books are not followed by the Hiſtorians, Antiquaries, Claſſics, and Philological Writers, in the uſual manner, was contrived chiefly for the Eaſe and Convenience of the Buyers, that their Patience may not be abuſed by a prolix and tedious Sale, the Authors reducible under thoſe Heads being very numerous; partly alſo upon the account of the Undertakers, who are encouraged to hope it may not be diſadvantageous to them to expoſe the French, Italian, and Spaniſh Books at this time, when they are not eaſily to be procured from the Places where they were Printed.

Conditions of SALE.

I. HE that bids Moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, the ſaid Book, or Books, ſhall forthwith be Expos'd to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue, are (for ought we know) perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That every Perſon be obliged to give in his Name and Place of Abode; paying alſo 5 s. in the Pound (if demanded) in part for the Books they Buy, and be obliged to take them away within Six Days after the Sale is ended.

IV. That no Perſon advance leſs than Six pence upon any Book, when it has riſen to Ten Shillings.

V. The Books will be expos'd to View at Tom's Coffee-Houſe adjoining to Ludgate (being the Place of Sale) Four Days before the AUCTION begins.

The AUCTION will begin on Monday the Thirtieth of March, at the Place above-ſaid, and continue every Afternoon at Three of the Clock.

Any Gentlemen who cannot be preſent at the time of Sale, may, if they pleaſe, ſend their Commiſſions to the Place of Sale, and they ſhall be faithfully executed by their humble Servant,

JOHN BULLORD.
